TrainR
User Guide

A training platform for pediatric fundus image labeling tasks

The front-end GUI-Image Reading

In the front-end GUI,medical staff can learn and test their image reading abilities.

In the quiz page,medical staff uses this page to test their image reading abilities.

In the course page， the courses are grouped by image diagnoses， medical staff uses this page to learn their image reading abilities.

When the user submits the quiz, the key to each question will be displayed

For each image, the system will provide five candidate choices, including the key supplied by pediatric ophthalmologists and the incorrect answers as distractors.

Click"next" and "previous"can learne all images by labeled

The back-end GUI-Quiz Base Management

In the back-end GUI,Pediatric ophthalmologists can use this GUI to edit the quiz bank and curate image labels

Click here to switch between Chinese and English

Click here to change the records displayed on each page

The left panel shows the image list.

The right panel is a structured tree view for candidate fundus image diagnoses. Each diagnosis is assigned a unique code from a controlled vocabulary.

Click here to add this image to your Quiz Bank